Online Italian courses

Welcome to the beautiful world of the Italian language!

About us

Founded in 1988, La Lingua La Vita successfully organizes Italian culture and language courses and hosts in person and online over 1,000 students every year from all over the world.

We are based in Todi, a delightful mediaeval city in Umbria—the “Green Heart of Italy”.

Thanks to its array of churches, museums, galleries, restaurants and cafes, Todi is the perfect place to learn Italian, meet new people and enjoy the real taste of Italian life.

We collaborate with various institutes and universities, such as Penn State University (USA), Hollins College (USA), Michigan University (USA), Italia-America Society (USA), as well as many Dante Alighieri centers, private schools in Japan, Cultural Institutes and Italian Societies around the world (Europe, China, Brazil, Australia).

Our Method

You are UNIQUE. Everybody learns in a way that is different from others, and La Lingua La Vita prides itself in analyzing your personal needs, interests and goals. Through art, history, cooking and engaging Italian language classes, you are given the opportunity to learn Italian language and culture in the time frame you choose.

Our interactive and personalized method allows all students to make quick progress and to enjoy the real taste of Italian life at the same time.
